

The Plan of Postgraduate Studies for Non Iraqi Students 2023-2024 – University of Baghdad -College of Languages

The College of Languages - University of Baghdad provides a scholarship for postgraduate studies within the initiative (Study in Iraq) sponsored and funded by His Excellency the Minister of Higher Education and Scientific Research , which includes tuition fees and housing for non-Iraqi students, according to specializations as in the schedule below:

Department	Study	General Specialty	Sub Specialty	Numbers of Seats
English Language	Master	English Language	Linguistics	2
English Language	Master	English Language	Literature	2

The applicant must provide the university with the following required documents and fill out the form below in the desired language (Arabic / English).

- Academic documents certified by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the student's country and the Iraqi embassy or cultural attaché in that country.
- A valid passport for a period of not less than two years from the date of submission.
- Research proposal for PhD applicants only.
- Recommendations from two teachers holding the title of professor in the field of specialization.

Personal documents.

- Non-conviction certificate issued by the home country.
- Personal documents issued by Iraqi government institutions and departments for non-Iraqi applicants residing in Iraq who are not employees.